Becoming a Woman of Understanding

Saturday, June 13, 2009 • 9am - 1pm
University of Michigan - Dearborn • Fairlane Center
19000 Hubbard Drive • Dearborn, MI • $20/person

Minister Barbara Smith
Seminar Host
Founder & Executive
Director, Hidden Jewels
International

Hidden Jewels International, Inc., is a non-profit Christian Women's Network that desires to become the VOICE that lovingly introduces women to the saving grace of Jesus Christ. With this seminar, we are excited to introduce a new aspect of our ministry that will address the concerns of women - practically and biblically. Historically, women are regarded as intellectually and emotionally more advanced than men, however we still lack understanding. To have understanding means to be in agreement - therefore we must agree with the Word of God and with certain principles of the world. Having understanding will catapult you into becoming a fully-developed woman — equipped with wisdom and endless possibilities. Imagine how much more effective you would be, if you truly understood how significant you are as a Daughter of the Most High God? Get ready to empower yourself by "Becoming a Woman with Understanding!"
